

Joe Amra

*Advisor / Consultant
Dealership Operations
Mergers and Acquisitions*

Joe is a graduate of LaSalle University class of 1997 and has been involved in the automotive business ever since. His automotive career encompasses from sales manager at a Chevrolet store in Palm Beach, Fla, to being a managing partner/dealer operator in several dealerships.

Joe is a certified Toyota / Lexus General manager, has worked with Auto Nation group, as a GM in several locations, and being an Executive manager in multiple dealerships as well. He is truly a well-rounded dealership Operations professional, who cares for the staff, customers, partners, while being highly profitable.

His reference list is long, and impressive. Joe realizes the potential today's changing dealer environment brings to our business. Fixed Ops, Sales training, F&I products and services, BDC and Social media marketing and advertising, is a huge challenge and opportunity. Joe understands it well and works with your Team to overcome these challenges.